for replacing a lost or stolen card. The gift card, which can be used at any store that accepts Visa, also expires after a year.

Some Fortune 500 companies have been sued too. In lawsuits filed recently in Illinois, a consumer charged Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (Research) and Kmart Holding Corporation (Research) of violating the law by refusing to refund gift card balances of $1.39 and 52 cents, respectively. The complaints also accuse the retailers of charging illegal expiration and non-usage fees.

While $2.50 here and 52 cents there doesn't sound worth quibbling about, the numbers add up to huge savings for gift card issuers, argues Dale McCormick who, as Maine's Treasurer, regulates gift cards on behalf of state consumers.

"We're talking big dollars," said McCormick. For consumers to buy a gift card and then watch the card's value diminish with or without actual purchases, "doesn't make sense."

McCormick said the Maine legislature will soon take up a bill that bans service fees not just on gift cards but also on all so-called stored-value cards.

Indianapolis-based Simon Property (Research) denies its gift card policies are illegal and argues in court that the states don't have grounds to sue because the card is issued by a national bank and, as a result, comes under federal law. A company spokeswoman noted too that the card has special features that cost the company money to administer.

A big business that's getting bigger

There's no question that gift card sales are booming. The National Retail Federation estimates that $55 billion worth of gift cards were sold in 2004. Gifts cards will be an $85 billion business in 2007, according to TowerGroup.

Retailers like gift cards because, unlike paper gift certificates, they can simply deduct the value of the purchase from the card without having to return a cash balance or create a new certificate for the leftover amount. What's more, plastic gift cards boost sales: studies have shown that gift card users often exceed the value of their cards when they do redeem them.

Traditional gift cards issued by retailers are regulated by state law. Therein lies one of the causes of the growing controversy over gift card policies.

Only six or seven states have laws on the books that address electronic gift card policies specifically, including expiration dates and the so-called non-usage fees that kick in if they aren't used, said Paul Griffin, a San Francisco lawyer and Thelen Reid & Priest partner who has defended retailers in gift card litigation. He said California, which banned expiration dates in 1997 and non-usage fees this year, is the most stringent.

EDP Licensing Secures Rights for Johnny Cash Prepaid Card

27 April 2006, 9:00pm ET

NASHVILLE, TN--(BUSINESS WIRE)--April 27, 2006--EDP Licensing, Inc (TM) announced today that they have entered into an agreement for a branded debit card program with the Johnny Cash Estate. Paul Cleveland, CEO of EDP Technologies Corporation(TM), said, "We believe that those fans and friends who have enjoyed Johnny Cash's music might like to have this unique card with his image portrayed on it."

The Johnny Cash Prepaid MasterCard(R) card is among the first celebrity-branded debit card programs to be launched. Mr. Cleveland added, "We are excited to bring the legend of Johnny Cash to our card product line and believe that this marks another milestone in the prepaid card industry."

The first in a series of Cash cards is scheduled to launch next month according to Mr. Cleveland. He announced, "In time we will offer a variety of Johnny Cash cards with a choice of images. We hope Johnny's fans will be as excited about the program as we are."

Prepaid debit cards are fast becoming the card of choice among American consumers. Last year, more purchases and bills were paid with debit cards than with checks. For the past two years, debit cards have outgrown their big brother -- the credit card. Much like a checking account without the paperwork, prepaid cards offer customers the convenience of a credit card and the "no-interest charge" advantage of a checking account.

Vince Young Announces First Endorsement with NetSpend, National Leader in Prepaid Debit Cards NFL-bound quarterback, NetSpend fund college scholarship with All-Access card

AUSTIN, TX, April 22, 2006 - AUSTIN, Texas -- Former University of Texas football great and soon-to-be NFL quarterback prospect Vince Young announced Saturday that his first professional player endorsement agreement is with Austin, Texas-based NetSpend Corporation, the nation's leading marketer of prepaid debit cards.

Young announced his debut endorsement partnership here at the firm's national headquarters company of NetSpend and University officials. Click here to watch the video.

"Just as my time at U.T. helped enable me to have greater opportunities, NetSpend is empowering all across the nation to change their lives with new freedom in their financial affairs," said Young. "What they are doing, and I want to be a part of it."

Young explained that in today's society, many people do not have or want a traditional bank or credit card, so when they try to rent a car, make an airline reservation, or transact online, they hear "No." But they still need a convenient vehicle to safely control their funds and to make purchases. NetSpend's All-Access prepaid debit cards are the leading solution.

"This isn't just a card, it's the end of all those no's," Young said. "The All-Access card lets people say 'Yes I can,' and that's what today and this partnership is all about."

As a first step in their new partnership, Young joined NetSpend CEO Rick Savard and founders Irv and Bertrand Sosa to present a giant $10,000 NetSpend All-Access debit card -- rather than the traditional jumbo check -- to the University of Texas College of Communication to establish an Advertising and Marketing Scholarship Fund at the school.

Savard said that the company chose to partner with Young because of the person he is, his values, and the way he connects with people and his leadership.

"Vince Young represents the American dream come true," said Savard. "He is a leader, an inspiration, and we are proud that he has joined us to help consumers understand their options to have access to a convenient and secure means to store and spend their money."

NetSpend has become the leader in the rapidly growing prepaid debit payments field. The company markets its own All-Access brand prepaid, re-loadable debit cards through distributors nationwide. Visa or MasterCard branded cards can be used to make purchases anywhere those cards are accepted. NetSpend's cards can be funded with a deposit of any amount up to $10,000 and act as a secure, federally insured portable bank account, to be used at any of tens of thousands of retail or service locations across the nation, or at any ATM.

NetSpend also partners with prominent retailers to provide private branded cards, along with some of the fastest growing categories of payment products.

Founded seven years ago by brothers Roy and Bertrand Sosa, privately-held NetSpend Corporation has grown to a national leader in the prepaid debit category processing close to $3 billion in funds through its cards, and has a staff of more than 200 employees at its Austin headquarters.

Frequently Asked Questions The American Express[®] Gift Card

Congratulations on receiving the American Express[®] Gift Card. Accompanying these frequently asked questions is the American Express Gift Card Cardholder Agreement (the "Terms and Conditions") and the USING YOUR GIFT CARD. PLEASE REVIEW THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COMPLETE USAGE GUIDELINES, RESTRICTIONS AND APPLICABLE FEES.

What is the American Express Gift Card and where can I use it?

The American Express Gift Card is a pre-paid card that can be used at participating merchants in the United States from catalogs, online vendors or at your favorite store. See Terms and Conditions for further details on Gift Card usage. The total dollar amount of purchases made with the Gift Card will be automatically deducted from the value of the Gift Card.

Do I need to do anything before using my Gift Card? Yes. The Gift Card has no value until it is activated. Before using your Gift Card, please sign the back of it immediately and call 1-888-233-8637 to activate the Gift Card. Activation may not be possible for up to 24 hours after purchase. You should also write down your Gift Card number and keep it in a separate place, just in case it is lost or stolen. At the time of activation, for your protection and for compliance purposes, we may request that you provide the card security code printed on the front of your Gift Card, as well as additional identification information such as your home phone number, date of birth, and zip code. For more information on this data, see the section below entitled "Before Using Your Gift Card" in the Terms and Conditions. Such information will be held in confidence in accordance with the section below entitled "Data Protection and Privacy" in the Terms and Conditions.

Are there any fees associated with the Gift Card? Yes. We encourage you to use your Gift Card soon! While you may leave a balance on the Gift Card as long as you wish, starting in the thirtieth month after the date of issuance, a monthly maintenance fee of $3.00 will be assessed on the balance remaining on the Gift Card.

If you make such a request, we will issue you a check for the amount remaining on the Gift Card. If you make such a request, we will charge your check issuance fee of $10, subject to applicable law.

Where is my Gift Card not valid? This Gift Card cannot be used outside the United States and it is not for use at airline, cruise lines, hotel, car rental, telecom, gasoline merchants, casinos or ATMs. Additional usage restrictions apply. See Terms and Conditions for further details on Gift Card usage.

Are there any other usage guidelines? Yes. Please see below paragraphs for guidance if you desire to use the Gift Card in combination with another form of payment or if you plan to use the Gift Card at "tip" oriented merchants:

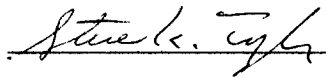

SPECIAL NOTE CONCERNING "SPLIT TENDER" TRANSACTIONS/COMBINING FORMS OF PAYMENT: If you have insufficient available funds on your Gift Card and you desire to use your Gift Card to purchase an item exceeding your available funds, depending on the merchant's policy, you may be able to use your Gift Card toward a portion of the final purchase price, and then use another form of payment to pay the balance of the final purchase price. This is called a "split tender" transaction because you would be splitting the final transaction amount between your Gift Card and another form of payment. Before you request a "split tender" transaction, please call Customer Service to check the balance of the funds on your Gift Card. Then, you MUST ask the merchant's representative if they can accept two forms of payment. If the merchant's cashier agrees, first request that the merchant place a specific dollar amount on the other form of payment (e.g., the final transaction amount less the balance of funds available on your Gift Card), and then use your Gift Card to pay the remaining balance. Additional Note: Some retailers, particularly department stores, will only allow a "split tender" transaction if the second form of payment is cash or check. Internet merchants do not permit "split tender" transactions and most mail order merchants will refuse such transactions.

SPECIAL NOTE WHEN USING YOUR GIFT CARD AT RESTAURANTS AND OTHER "TIP" ORIENTED MERCHANTS: When a restaurant, or other "tip" oriented establishment (e.g., lounges, spas, etc.) authorizes your Gift Card to receive approval from American Express to complete the transaction the establishment will often add a fixed percentage (approximately 20%) to the amount reflected on the bill presented to you prior to payment. This additional amount is meant to cover the tip that would normally be added to the bill by the customer. As a result of this increased authorization request, if you have insufficient available funds on your Gift Card to cover the amount that the establishment requested us to approve, your Gift Card may be declined. If you have more than sufficient available funds on your Gift Card to cover the amount that the establishment requested us to approve, it may result in a "hold" on your available funds for the additional amount if you choose to leave the tip using cash or another payment method. Once the establishment submits the final transaction amount to us we will remove the "hold" on your available funds for any additional amount exceeding the final transaction amount. This may take 3 to 7 days and during this period you will not be able to use any available funds in a "hold" position. As an illustration, if your meal, not including a tip, totaled $50 but the restaurant seeks approval from us for $60 (e.g., includes a $10 tip in the authorization request) and you choose to pay only the $50 for the meal with your Gift Card, leaving the tip in cash, then the additional $10 would be placed on "hold" until we receive a submission from the restaurant reflecting a final transaction amount of $50 on your Gift Card. TO AVOID A DECLINE OF, OR A HOLD ON, YOUR GIFT CARD, YOU CAN ASK THE ESTABLISHMENT TO AUTHORIZE A SPECIFIC DOLLAR AMOUNT. WE DO NOT GUARANTEE THAT THE ESTABLISHMENT WILL FULFILL THIS REQUEST.
